BY THE COURT:-

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Learned counsel for the parties are ad-idem that the issues raised in this writ petition are squarely covered by the decision of this Court in Gyan Chand Vs. Additional District Judge Beawar and anr. (SB Civil Writ Petition No.8751/2005) decided on 23/5/2007.

In the facts of the case and on perusal of the impugned-order, I take the similar view as taken in the aforesaid case.

The writ petition is therefore dismissed. However, the appellate court is directed to dispose of the appeal as expeditiously as possible preferably within six months from the date certified copy of the judgment is produced before it.

At this stage, on the request of the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is allowed to deposit the arrears of mesne-profit as determined by the appellate court after determination of the amount of rent being already deposited in terms of the order passed by the trial court.

(MOHAMMAD RAFIQ), J.
